

ISG Classroom Teacher - International School Ghent

Job title Junior Primary Classroom Teacher
Based at International School Ghent (ISG), De Pintelaan 258, 9000 Ghent

Introduction

ISG is a young, culturally diverse and thriving International School located close to the centre of Ghent. We are proud of our positive and high-quality learning environment developing children's academic and personal skills.

We are looking for an enthusiastic teacher who works well as part of a team and is keen to be involved in all aspects of our school and commit to our vision and values. This is a fantastic opportunity for an experienced teacher to join our Primary team. We are looking for a well-rounded, organised, flexible classroom practitioner who will bring creativity and enthusiasm to our school.

This vacancy is for our Lower Primary class. Strength in teaching early literacy and numeracy is important, together with the ability to deliver a classroom programme catering for the wide range of English language levels in the class.

Your task

- Have a passion for education, encouraging and enabling children to develop the confidence and skills to become enthusiastic learners for life.
- Independently teach a small class of pupils with mixed ability, age, background and English proficiency.
- Have strengths in Literacy and Numeracy (particularly in the lower level of Primary), and be able to clearly state evidence for these strengths and the philosophy/pedagogy behind them.
- Develop an integrated classroom programme based on the ideas and principles of the International Primary Curriculum (IPC).
- Use effective class management strategies and help children reach their full potential by creating a positive, caring and stimulating learning environment.
- Have the knowledge and ability to use a range of assessment procedures to inform teaching, track learning and inform parents regarding their child's progress.
- Communicate effectively and build positive relationships with parents, working in the best interests of their child and appreciate the diverse nature of our International community.
- Have an awareness of children's first and second language acquisition, bilingualism and related issues.

- Have a genuine enjoyment and affinity for children.
- Have excellent interpersonal and intercultural relationship building skills.
- Contribute in constructing the educational programme and pedagogical vision of the school whilst following the International Primary Curriculum and UK Curriculum

Selection requirements

- You hold a master or bachelor diploma (or a diploma of an equivalent level) in primary school education.
- You have at least 3 years of professional teaching experience in a primary school setting. Teaching experience in international schools is preferable, experience with International Primary Curriculum a strong asset.
- You have an excellent level of English: native speaker or level C2 (Common European Framework of References for languages).
- Extra ESL (English as a second language) qualifications an advantage.

What we offer

- A full-time position for one school year (maternity leave position), with possibilities for extension depending on school growth.
- A highly stimulating and supportive working environment.
- The opportunity to co-create and build a young thriving school.
- A salary that is comparable with that in Flemish schools.

How to apply

Please complete the application form and accompany this with a letter of motivation, your Curriculum Vitae and at least one written reference. Documents should be emailed to info@isg-ghent.org
